SCHOOL SONG

Dear old Trent High of Gorillas fame

The first line of the musical score is written on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the treble clef starts with a quarter note on D4, followed by quarter notes on E4, F4, and G4. There is a half note on A4, then a quarter note on B4, and a half note on C5. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The bass line consists of a series of chords, mostly triads, in the left hand.

We have learned to love respect you honor your

The second line of the musical score continues the melody and bass line. The treble clef melody includes eighth and sixteenth notes, with a repeat sign. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The bass line continues with chords.

name To your ideals we'll be true To your spirits fame

The third line of the musical score continues the melody and bass line. The treble clef melody includes eighth and sixteenth notes, with a repeat sign. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The bass line continues with chords.

We'll give our best for T. H. S. Till the end of time.

The fourth line of the musical score concludes the melody and bass line. The treble clef melody includes eighth and sixteenth notes, with a repeat sign. The lyrics are placed below the notes. The bass line continues with chords.

As a token of our appreciation for your cooperation and support, we the annual staff dedicate this '54 Gorilla to all the patrons of the Trent School District.

SUPERINTENDENT AND MESSAGE

Wray B. Williams

TO THE TRENT SENIOR CLASS OF '54

It is with deepest appreciation that I commend you for your fine spirit of cooperation and loyalty to our school. Your accomplishments have done much to help hold high the banner of Trent High School. As you go into the various fields of endeavor, may you use knowledge gained here to attain greater achievements in life.

May your lives be filled with much sunshine, success, and happiness.

Sincerely,

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Tune: Now Is The Hour

Trent High, we'll be true, To you the whole year through
We'll be behind you, In everything you do.
Throughout this year, We'll always do our best,
To make this year the best of all the rest.

School spirit strong, Will always linger on.
Even though we wander, miles and miles away,
Some may forget, our days at T. H. S.
But we'll all remember days we loved the best.

Soon we'll depart, we hope we've done our part,
To bring Trent High School, honor and respect.
To those left there, we leave to you its care,
Hoping you'll always love old T. H. S.

The musical score is written for a four-part setting, likely for voices or instruments. It consists of four systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings such as 'p.' (piano). The first system begins with a repeat sign. The second system features a long melodic line in the treble staff. The third system continues the melodic development. The fourth system concludes with a final cadence, marked with a '7' in the treble staff and a '7' in the bass staff.

CLASS WILL

Known to all men, and being of sound mind and body, herein is the last will and testimony of the 1954 Senior Class of Trent High School.

Bobby Barnes wills his hot rod driving to Jerry Estep.

Venita Qattlebaum wills her hay fever and kleenex to just anyone.

To Jerrell Butman, Dallas Gore leaves his artistic interests and his faith in Superman.

Bobbie Ann Dudley leaves her knowledge of how to fold bleachers and job as basketball captain to Carolyn McRee.

Sue McRee wills her knack in keeping up with things, especially tennis shoes, to Cora Mae Yandell.

Joe Scott leaves his meek and innocent looks to Yvonne Martin.

Felipa Acuna leaves her earrings to Barbara Washburn.

Jesse Yandell wills his skill in getting extra shortcakes at area F. F. A. banquets to Jerry McWilliams.

Glenda Reynolds wills her job operating the duplicator to LaVaughn Young.

To J. B. Swinney, Phil Goodwin leaves his job as bus driver and his place at half back.

Sylvia Taylor wills her returned hair nets to Betty Payne.

Mervin Roberts leaves his mechanic ability to Sherman Driggers.

Rowena Richburg leaves her typing speed to Ola Frances Rhynes.

Van Graham, after two years, sadly wills his job as class song leader to Tommy Toliver.

Shirley Carter wills her giggles and blushes to Neleta Hale.

Tommy Jones wills his Eisenhower pin to Dayne Ambrose.

Barbara Edwards wills her ability to say the right thing at the wrong time and the wrong thing at the right time to Zana Young.

James Lewis Wilks wills his ability to open milk bottles and job as Gorilla editor to Ronnie Freeman.

Elton Freeman wills his attendance record to Petra Acuna.

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

A black and white cartoon illustration. On the left, a man in a white lab coat and dark trousers is holding a camera on a tripod. He is looking through the viewfinder and has a small insect flying near his head. On the right, a woman in a black dress is posing dramatically, with one hand on her hip and the other extended. She is looking towards the man.
